

Winter Lecture Programme 2021 / 22

Our First Lecture 24th November 2021, 7pm, Ralli Hall "Brighton and Hove Heritage Assets in the Public Domain"

Roger Amerena, founder of Brighton and Hove Heritage Commission and Heritage Commissioner will talk about the city's heritage assets.

Our Second Lecture 26th January 2022, 7pm, Ralli Hall "Portslade Old Village- Lost Jewel in the Crown"

Trevor Povey will piece together the events that shaped one of our more important villages. Little appreciated, almost invisible, and next to one of our earliest super highways.

Our Third Lecture 16rd February 2022, 7pm, Ralli Hall "Close up on Film: Behind the scenes at Hove Museum"

Alexia Lazou from the Hove Museum will be going into some depth about film making focusing on the RPMT Collection, how it was formed and look at some of the items which are not on display. A large part stems from the Barnes Brothers, twin film historians, there is a cine camera owned by Hove resident Ernest Wimble pioneer of the Workers' Travel Association and several other delights of film making.

Our Final Lecture 22nd March 2022, 7pm, Ralli Hall "An Artists perspective on rewilding at Knepp Wildland"

Hazel Reeves, Hove Plinth's sculpture adviser, and over last year artist-in-residence at Knepp Wildland, has been documenting the ecological value and sculptural beauty of the Knepp scrubland across the seasons from an artist's perspective through soundscapes (recording of birdsong), film, photography and collaboration with a movement artist and filmographer. Hazel will talk about her time at Knepp and her related Fabrica residency, illustrated by her images and her recorded birdsapes.

Our Annual Forum 20th April 2022, 7pm, Ralli Hall

Taking our cue from the success of the 2021 Forum, we will again focus on how local communities in Hove are improving our public realm and what more we can do.
